Street Report

The streets department have been busy cutting grass and fighting ants. Please look out for them while they are out there. Hopefully it will cool down soon and the growth will slow down.

New Business

- none

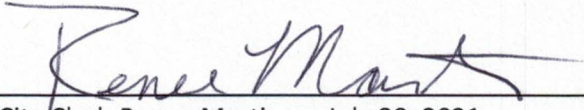

Old Business

- Vehicle Parking Regulations Ordinance- As soon as the signs get here and are installed, the police department will start enforcing the ordinance.
- Forestar (USA) Group Real Estate Rezone Request update- application withdrawn.
- July 3rd event report
- Summer Library report, Piccadilly Puppets
- Millage rate set and public hearings for budget- Could not get our dates because we haven't gotten our paperwork from the county to set those dates.
- Update on Service Delivery Strategy negotiations- Rob Russell gives an update
- Speed limits for subdivisions- We're working with the Department of Public Safety on getting the streets approved. 30 days after they are approved, the police department can start enforcing the speed limits on those roads. Hopeful to have an update at the next council meeting.
- The City will make sure the public gets the dates for the millage rate meetings. We'll post them on the website and in the newspaper.
- Rob Russell gives update on rezoning and annexation of the property between Jefferson and Pendergrass off Highway 129 (Dr. Mahannas property)
- Nathan Pruitt asks for more information on the Forestar project. Rob Russell gives more information.
- Harlan Robinson asks if we've received anymore information on closing of the other bridge over I85 on Hwy 332. Rob Russell states we have not received any information on the closing.
